On November 14, 2005, Capital One Financial Corporation issued the following press release:

Preliminary Results of Election Regarding Merger Consideration Announced in Capital One's Acquisition of Hibernia
MCLEAN, Va. and NEW ORLEANS ((November 14, 2005) -- Capital One Financial Corporation (NYSE: COF) and Hibernia Corporation (NYSE: HIB) today announced the preliminary results of new elections made by Hibernia shareholders as to the form of merger consideration to be received in the pending acquisition of Hibernia by Capital One. Of the 159,966,895 shares of Hibernia common stock outstanding as of November 11, 2005:

- 30,186,453 shares, or 18.9%, elected to receive cash;
- 108,802,647 shares, or 68.0%, elected to receive Capital One common stock; and
- 20,977,795 shares, or 13.1%, did not make a valid election.

The elections with respect to approximately 4,772,471 of the foregoing shares electing to receive cash and approximately 23,117,659 of the foregoing shares electing to receive stock were made pursuant to the notice of guaranteed delivery procedure, which requires the delivery of Hibernia shares to the exchange agent for the merger by 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on November 16, 2005. If the exchange agent does not receive the required share certificates or book-entry transfer of shares by this guaranteed delivery deadline, the Hibernia shares subject to such election will be treated as shares that did not make a valid election.

The actual merger consideration, and the allocation of the merger consideration, will be computed using the formula in the amended merger agreement and will be based on, among other things, the actual number of shares of Hibernia common stock outstanding immediately prior to the closing date, the final results of the election process, and the value of Capital One common stock for the five trading days immediately preceding the date of the effective time of the merger. The maximum amount of cash that will be paid in the merger is fixed at $2,231,039,040. A press release announcing the final merger consideration will be issued after the final merger consideration is determined.

A more complete description of the merger consideration and the proration procedures applicable to elections is contained in the revised proxy statement/prospectus dated September 27, 2005, mailed to Hibernia shareholders of record, which Hibernia shareholders are urged to read carefully and in its entirety.

Capital One and Hibernia expect to complete the merger on November 16, 2005. The proposed merger remains subject to the continued effectiveness of all regulatory approvals.

Forward-looking statements

Capital One and Hibernia caution that certain statements in this release are forward-looking statements and actual results could differ materially from current expectations due to a number of factors, including: continued intense competition from numerous providers of products and services which compete with each company's businesses; changes in each company's aggregate accounts and balances, and the growth rate and composition thereof; each company's ability to continue to diversify its assets; each company's ability to access the capital markets at attractive rates and terms to fund its operations and future growth; changes in the reputation of the credit card industry and/or each company with respect to practices or products; the success of each company's marketing efforts; each company's ability to execute on its strategic and operating plans; and general economic conditions affecting interest rates and consumer income and spending, which may affect consumer bankruptcies, defaults, and charge-offs; the failure of Hibernia stockholders to approve the Capital One -- Hibernia transaction; the risk that the Hibernia businesses will not be integrated successfully; the risk that the cost savings and any other synergies from the Hibernia transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; disruption from the Hibernia transaction making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees or suppliers; the impact of property, credit and other losses expected as the result of the Gulf Coast Hurricanes; the amount of government, private and philanthropic investment, including deposits, in the geographic regions impacted by the Gulf Coast Hurricanes; the pace and magnitude of economic recovery in the region impacted by the Gulf Coast Hurricanes; and the potential impact of damages from future hurricanes and other storms. Capital One and Hibernia undertake no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent circumstances, events or information or for any other reason.
