Item 3.01
Listing

Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of

On June 8, 2015, Cinedigm Corp., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), received a letter (the “Notice”) from the Listing Qualifications staff of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) indicating that, based upon the closing bid price of the Company’s Class A common stock for the last 30 consecutive business days, the Company no longer meets the requirement to maintain a minimum bid price of $1 per share, as set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5450(a)(1). The Notice does not result in the immediate delisting of the Company’s common stock from the Nasdaq Global Market.

In accordance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company has been provided a period of 180 calendar days, or until December 7, 2015, in which to regain compliance. In order to regain compliance with the minimum bid price requirement, the closing bid price of the Company’s common stock must be at least $1 per share for a minimum of ten consecutive business days during this 180-day period. If the Company does not regain compliance with the bid price requirement by December 7, 2015, the Company may be eligible for an additional 180 calendar day compliance period provided that it meets the continued listing requirement for the market value of publicly held shares and all other initial listing standards, with the exception of the bid price requirement, and provides the Staff with written notice of its intention to cure the deficiency. If the Company does not regain compliance by December 7, 2015 or the termination of any subsequent compliance period, if applicable, the Staff will provide written notification to the Company that its common stock may be delisted.

The Company actively monitors the price of its common stock and will consider all available options to regain compliance with the continued listing standards.
