Telesp and Vivo are Brazilian companies. Information distributed in connection with the proposed share merger and the related shareholder vote is subject to Brazilian disclosure requirements that are different from those of the United States. Any financial statements and financial information included herein is prepared in accordance with Brazilian accounting standards that may not be comparable to the financial statements or financial information of United States companies.

It may be difficult for you to enforce your rights and any claim you may have arising under the U.S. federal securities laws in respect of the share merger, since the companies are located in Brazil and substantially all of their officers and directors are residents of Brazil. You may not be able to sue the companies or their officers or directors in a Brazilian court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. Finally, it may be difficult to compel the companies and their affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment.

You should be aware that the companies may purchase shares of the companies otherwise than under the share merger, such as in open market or privately negotiated purchases, at any time during the pendency of the proposed transaction.
