Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 19, 2006, the Board of Directors of Alleghany Corporation (the Company ) adopted the 2007 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the 2007 LTIP ), to be effective upon stockholder approval. At the Company's 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the 2007 Annual Meeting ) held on April 27, 2007, Alleghany stockholders approved the adoption of the 2007 LTIP by an affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the 2007 Annual Meeting. A copy of the 2007 LTIP is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1.

The 2007 LTIP permits the Company to provide incentive compensation of the types commonly known as restricted stock, stock options, stock appreciation rights, performance shares, performance units and phantom stock, as well as other types of incentive compensation. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the Compensation Committee ) may select participants in the 2007 LTIP from among employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. The term employee, as used in the 2007 LTIP, means any person, including any officer, employed by the Company or a subsidiary on a salaried basis. The term subsidiary, as used in the 2007 LTIP, means any corporation, partnership or limited liability company, a majority of the total combined voting power of whose stock or other equity interest is beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by the Company. The 2007 LTIP provides for a maximum of 300,000 shares of common stock to be paid to participants under the 2007 LTIP and/or purchased pursuant to stock options granted under the 2007 LTIP, subject to antidilution and other adjustments in certain events specified in the 2007 LTIP. The Compensation Committee administers the 2007 LTIP, and it has authority to determine, within the limits of the 2007 LTIP, the individuals to whom awards will be granted, and the type and size of such awards, including any objectives or conditions for earning payment pursuant to such awards. Awards under the 2007 LTIP may include, but need not be limited to: cash and/or shares of common stock, stock appreciation rights, options to purchase shares of common stock, including options intended to qualify as incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code ), and options not intended so to qualify.

The Compensation Committee may also make any other type of award deemed by it to be consistent with the purposes of the 2007 LTIP. The Compensation Committee may, but is not required to, grant an award to any participant that is intended to qualify as performance-based compensation within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Code, or a Qualifying Award. To be considered a Qualifying Award, awards, other than stock options or a stock appreciation rights granted at Fair Market Value (as defined below), must be granted conditional upon the attainment of specific amounts of, or increases in, performance goals enumerated in the 2007 LTIP and established by the Compensation Committee in writing at the time the award is granted. Fair Market Value is defined in the 2007 LTIP generally as (i) the closing sales prices of the common stock on the relevant date as reported on the stock exchange or market on which the common stock is primarily traded, or (ii) if no sale is made on such date, then fair market value is the closing sales prices of the common stock on the next preceding day and the next succeeding day on which such sales were made as reported on the stock exchange or market on which the common stock is primarily traded.

The Board, without the consent of any participant, may amend or terminate the 2007 LTIP at any time, provided, however, that no such action shall adversely affect any rights or obligations with respect to any awards previously made under the 2007 LTIP, and provided further, that no such amendment, without approval of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock voted thereon in person or by proxy, shall: increase the number of shares of common stock subject to the 2007 LTIP, extend the period during which awards may be granted, increase the maximum term for which stock options may be issued under the 2007 LTIP, decrease the minimum price at which stock options may be issued under the 2007 LTIP, or materially modify the requirements for eligibility to participate in the 2007 LTIP.
