ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS OF GENCOR INDUSTRIES, INC.

PROXY STATEMENT OF LLOYD I. MILLER, III

GENCOR ANNUAL MEETING. On January 28, 2008, Gencor Industries, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Gencor or the Company), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission its proxy statement and notice to stockholders that the Annual Meeting of Stockholders will be held at the Company s corporate offices; 5201 North Orange Blossom Trail, Orlando, Florida, on March 6, 2008 at 10:00 A.M., local time.

STOCKHOLDER NOMINATION. Mr. Lloyd I. Miller, III has submitted his nomination for election as a director to the Board of Directors of Gencor. Mr. Miller beneficially owns an aggregate of approximately 918,666 shares of common stock in Gencor, representing approximately 11.5% of the 7,967,372 shares outstanding.

GOLD PROXY CARD. This proxy statement and the enclosed GOLD proxy card (the GOLD proxy card) are being furnished to you, the stockholders of Gencor, by Mr. Lloyd I. Miller, III, who is a nominee for election by the common stockholders.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES FOR MR. MILLER. Mr. Miller is soliciting proxies to be used at the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Gencor, and any adjournments or postponements thereof (the Annual Meeting). Pursuant to this proxy statement, Mr. Miller is soliciting proxies from holders of shares of Gencor common stock to vote FOR the election of Lloyd I. Miller, III as a director of the Company to represent the interests of the public stockholders.

RECORD DATE. Gencor s proxy statement states that only Gencor stockholders of record at the close of business on January 30, 2008 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. Stockholders should review the information provided herein in conjunction with the Company s 2007 Annual Report to Stockholders, which accompanies the proxy statement mailed by Gencor.

To elect STOCKHOLDER-NOMINATED REPRESENTATION ON THE BOARD, Gencor common stockholders should VOTE FOR the election of Lloyd I. Miller, III as a director of the Company.

* * * * *

This proxy statement and the accompanying GOLD proxy card are first being mailed to stockholders on or about February 15, 2008. According to the Company s proxy statement, the Company has set March 6, 2008 as the date for the Annual Meeting and January 30, 2008 (the Record Date) as the date for determining which stockholders will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

A proxy may be given by any person who holds shares of Gencor common stock on the Record Date set for the Annual Meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, you are urged to sign and date the enclosed GOLD proxy card and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided.

Since only your latest dated proxy card will count, we urge you not to return any white proxy card you receive from the Company. Even if you have already returned a white proxy card sent to you by the Company, you have a right to change your vote by signing, dating and returning a later dated proxy card or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting. By completing and returning the GOLD proxy card, any previous proxy card you may have previously sent to the Company will be automatically revoked. It is very important that you DATE YOUR GOLD PROXY CARD because your latest-dated proxy is the only one that counts.

All valid proxies received before the Annual Meeting will be voted, and stockholders have the power to revoke their proxies at any time before they are exercised.

Please do not return any proxy sent to you by the Company.

REASONS TO VOTE FOR LLOYD I. MILLER, III AS DIRECTOR

The following is a summary of Mr. Miller's views and the reasons why Mr. Miller is seeking representation on the board of directors at the Annual Meeting:

Gencor's nominee for election by the common stockholders has an UNDISCLOSED PRIOR EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP with Gencor. The common stockholders can elect ONLY ONE director to the Company's board of directors. Since 2005, the Company has slated Russell R. Lee III as the one director to be elected by the common stockholders. Gencor's proxy statement omits the fact that Mr. Lee was a former executive of Gencor. Mr. Miller believes that because of Mr. Lee's previous employment relationships with Gencor, Mr. Lee is not the right candidate to represent the interests of the common stockholders and would be better suited as a candidate for the Class B stockholders.

Mr. Miller has a PROVEN HISTORY OF WORKING TO ENHANCE STOCKHOLDER VALUE. When necessary, Mr. Miller has sought board participation through proxy contests with successful results. Once nominated and elected as a member of the boards of directors of various public companies, Mr. Miller has WORKED HARD to enhance stockholder value. Mr. Miller believes that Gencor's performance will be enhanced if the board includes a director NOMINATED BY STOCKHOLDERS.

For more information on how the past actions and practices of the board have adversely affected the Company and on how Mr. Miller will work to realize value for all stockholders of Gencor, please read the following section entitled "Statement in Support."

BACKGROUND TO SOLICITATION

Mr. Lee's Appointment to Board by Directors. Russell R. Lee, III was one of two directors selected by the directors of the Company to replace two directors who resigned during 2003.

Mr. Lee's Nomination for Election at Delayed Annual Meeting in 2005. The Company failed to hold an annual meeting of the stockholders in 2004 to elect directors, and Mr. Lee continued to serve as a director of the Company during that time without standing for election by the common stockholders. Mr. Lee was not elected as a director by the common stockholders until the delayed annual meeting of the stockholders held by the Company in September of 2005.

Mr. Miller's Filing on 13D. On June 19, 2007, Mr. Miller filed a Schedule 13D in which he disclosed that he is examining his options with respect to taking action to enhance governance, oversight and stockholder value, including (1) nominating candidates for director of the board of directors of the Company and (2) encouraging, participating in or leading the efforts to include individuals on the Board who would be independent of management and would represent the interests of the Company and the holders of common stock.

Mr. Miller's Nomination. On November 20, 2007, Mr. Miller sent a letter to the Company in which he provided notice of his intention to nominate himself at the Annual Meeting for election by the common stockholders to serve as a director of the board of directors of the Company. On November 21, 2007, Mr. Miller amended his Schedule 13D to disclose such intention.

STATEMENT IN SUPPORTBenefits of Nominations by Common Stockholders.

Currently, there are six directors on the board of directors of the Company. Under the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws, the Class B stockholders have the right to elect 75% of the total number of directors and the common stockholders have the right to elect 25% of the total number of directors.

As a result, the Class B stockholders elect five of the six directors, and the common stockholders elect ONLY ONE of the directors.

Considering that the common stockholders of the Company elect ONLY ONE director, Mr. Miller believes that it is important that the director should have no prior employment relationship with Gencor. Mr. Miller believes that independence from management is important for purposes of representing the interests of the common stockholders. Mr. Miller also believes that individuals nominated by stockholders are more likely to advocate business practices intended to increase the returns to public stockholders and are therefore better positioned to bring a diversity of perspectives to the board.

Undisclosed Employment Relationship of Russell R. Lee, III with the Company

Initial appointment without election by common stockholders. As disclosed in the proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by the Company on August 23, 2005, Russell R. Lee, III was first appointed as director by the Company's directors to fill a vacancy created on the board in 2003.

Delayed annual meeting. The Company failed to hold an annual meeting of the stockholders in 2004 to elect directors, and Mr. Lee continued to serve as a director of the Company in 2004. Mr. Lee was not elected as a director by the common stockholders until the annual meeting of the stockholders held by the Company in September of 2005.

Omission of information regarding prior executive position with Gencor. When Gencor nominated Mr. Lee two years later for election by the common stockholders, they provided incomplete information regarding Mr. Lee's employment experience. Based on previous Gencor filings before Mr. Lee was named as a director, Mr. Lee served as the Corporate Controller of the Company from 1990 to 1995, and then as the Treasurer/Chief Financial Officer of the Company from 1995 to 1998. Mr. Lee's previous employment with Gencor was disclosed in the Gencor proxy statement in 1999 and in April 2007 by his employer, Teltronics, Inc., in its Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. However, Gencor failed to disclose this former employment relationship in the proxy statement delivered to common stockholders in each year that Mr. Lee was elected to serve as an independent director of Gencor, as that term is defined in the NASDAQ rules described in Gencor's proxy statement. Gencor continued to omit Mr. Lee's previous relationship from its proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 28, 2008.

Mr. Lee is better suited to be a Class B director candidate. Mr. Miller has met with Mr. Lee and has no personal or professional objections to Mr. Lee as a candidate for director. However, Mr. Miller believes that the interests of the common stockholders would be better served by a candidate with no previous ties to Gencor. Considering Mr. Lee's previous employment relationships with Gencor, Mr. Miller believes that Mr. Lee is not the right candidate to represent the interests of the common stockholders and would be better suited as a candidate for the Class B stockholders.

Table of Contents

Designation of Mr. Lee as financial expert. In view of Mr. Lee's previous ties to Gencor and its management, Mr. Miller believes that Mr. Lee is not the right candidate to represent the interests of the common stockholders. In particular, Mr. Miller is concerned that Mr. Lee has been determined by the board to be an independent director under the NASDAQ rules and serves as an audit committee financial expert, notwithstanding Mr. Lee's previous employment relationship with Gencor.

Conclusion

For each of the reasons outlined above, Mr. Miller believes that the common stockholders need a new director to represent them on the Company's board of directors to ensure that the voices of the common stockholders are heard. Accordingly, Mr. Miller urges you to vote for him as a director for the common stockholders at the Annual Meeting by signing, dating and returning the GOLD proxy card in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope. Mr. Miller has consented to being named in this proxy statement and to serve if elected to Gencor's board of directors

GENERAL VOTING PROCEDURES

Miller, III as a director of the Company, please sign and date the enclosed GOLD proxy card and return it to Mr. Miller's proxy solicitor, The Altman Group, Inc. (The Altman Group), in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope. Submitting the proxy will not affect your right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS ABOUT VOTING PROCEDURES

How do I vote in person if I am a record holder?

If you held shares of Gencor common stock on the Record Date you may attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person.

How do I vote by proxy if I am a record holder?

To vote by proxy, you should complete, sign and date the enclosed GOLD proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope. To be able to vote your shares in accordance with your instructions at the Annual Meeting, Mr. Miller's solicitor must receive your proxy as soon as possible but, in any event, prior to the meeting. You may vote your shares without submitting a proxy, if you vote in person.

Table of Contents

What if I am not the record holder of my shares?

If your shares are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank nominee or other institution, only it can give a proxy with respect to your shares. You may have received either a GOLD proxy card from the record holder (which you can complete and send directly to The Altman Group) or an instruction card (which you can complete and return to the record holder to direct its voting of your shares). If the record holder has not sent you either a GOLD proxy card or an instruction card, you may contact the record holder directly to provide it with instructions.

You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement and multiple GOLD proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold shares in more than one brokerage account, you may receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which your shares are held. You should complete, sign, date and return each GOLD proxy card and voting instruction card you receive.

You may also receive a white proxy or voting instruction card that is being solicited by the Company's board of directors. Mr. Miller urges you to discard any white proxy card or voting instruction card sent to you by the Company. If you have previously signed a white proxy card or voting instruction card sent by the Company, we urge you to sign, date and promptly mail the enclosed GOLD proxy card or voting instruction card before the Annual Meeting. By doing so, you will revoke any earlier dated proxy card or voting instruction card solicited by the Company's board of directors. It is very important that you date your proxy. It is not necessary to contact the Company for your revocation to be effective.

If you have questions or need assistance, please contact The Altman Group at (866) 745-0269.

What is a legal proxy, and when would I need one?

If you do not have record ownership of your shares and want to vote in person at the Annual Meeting, or if you are voting for someone else at the Annual Meeting, you may obtain a document called a legal proxy from the record holder of the shares or such other person and bring it to the Annual Meeting. If you need assistance, please contact The Altman Group at (866) 745-0269.

What should I do if I receive a white proxy card from Gencor's management?

Proxies on the white proxy card are being solicited by the Company's management. If you submit a proxy to us by signing and returning the enclosed GOLD proxy card, do not subsequently sign or return the white proxy card or follow any voting instructions provided by the Company, unless you intend to change your vote, because only your latest dated proxy will be counted.

If you have already sent a white proxy card to the Company, you may revoke it and vote with Mr. Miller by signing, dating and returning the enclosed GOLD proxy card.

What if I want to revoke my proxy or change my voting instructions?

If you give a proxy, you may revoke it at any time before it is voted on your behalf. If you hold shares in your own name (i.e., not through a bank or brokerage firm), you may revoke the prior proxy by:

- delivering a later dated proxy to Mr. Miller's proxy solicitor, using the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope; or
- delivering a later dated proxy to the Secretary of Gencor; or
- delivering a written revocation to either Mr. Miller's proxy solicitor or the Secretary of Gencor; or voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

If you hold your shares in street name, you may change your vote by:

submitting a new proxy card or voting instruction form to your broker or nominee; or attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person, provided you have obtained a signed legal proxy from the record holder giving you the right to vote your shares.

If you choose to revoke a proxy by giving written notice or a later-dated proxy to the Secretary of Gencor or by submitting new voting instructions to your broker or nominee, Mr. Miller would appreciate if you would assist us in representing the interests of stockholders on an informed basis by either sending The Altman Group a copy of your revocation, proxy or new voting instructions or by calling them at (866) 745-0269. Remember, your latest-dated proxy is the only one that counts.

If I plan to attend the Annual Meeting, should I still submit a proxy?

Whether you plan to attend the Annual Meeting or not, we urge you to submit a GOLD proxy. Returning the enclosed proxy card will not affect your right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote.

Who can vote?

You are eligible to vote or to execute a proxy only if you owned shares of common stock of the Company on the Record Date. Even if you sell your shares after the Record Date, you will retain the right to execute a proxy in connection with the Annual Meeting. It is important that you grant a proxy regarding shares you held on the Record Date, or vote those shares in person, even if you no longer own those shares. According to the Company's proxy statement for the Annual Meeting filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 28, 2008, approximately 7,967,372 shares of the Company's common stock were issued and outstanding as of November 27, 2007.

How many votes do I have?

With respect to each matter to be considered at the Annual Meeting, you are entitled to one vote for each share of common stock owned on the Record Date. Based on documents publicly filed by the Company, the Company's only outstanding voting securities are its common stock and Class B stock.

How will my shares be voted?

If you give a proxy on the accompanying GOLD proxy card with instructions, your shares will be voted as you direct. If you submit a signed GOLD proxy card to Mr. Miller's proxy solicitor without instructions, your shares will be voted FOR the election of Mr. Miller as a director of Gencor AND AGAINST any other proposal by the Company, EXCEPT that proxies held by Mr. Miller will vote FOR any proposal by Mr. Miller to adjourn the meeting, unless the signed GOLD proxy contains instructions to the contrary. Submitting a signed GOLD proxy card without instructions will entitle Mr. Miller to vote your shares in his discretion on matters not described in this proxy statement that Mr. Miller does not know, a reasonable time before this solicitation, are to be presented at the Annual Meeting and that properly come before the Annual Meeting, or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

If Gencor stockholders holding shares of Gencor stock in street name do not provide voting instructions, their shares will not be voted and will therefore be considered broker non-votes.

Table of Contents

Unless a signed proxy specifies otherwise, it is presumed to relate to all shares held of record on the Record Date by the person who submitted it.

What is a quorum and why is it necessary?

A quorum of stockholders is necessary to have a valid stockholders meeting. The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of each class of stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the election of directors. A non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Shares held by the Company in its treasury do not count toward the quorum.

What vote is required to elect a director and approve each proposal and how will votes be counted?

The Company currently has six directors, each of whom serves for a one-year term or until his successor is elected and qualified, or until such individual's earlier resignation or removal. The Company's common stockholders and Class B stockholders are the only classes of securities entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. The common stockholders have the right to elect one director and the Class B stockholders have the right to elect 5 directors at the Annual Meeting, each voting separately as a class. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock or Class B stock held of record by such stockholder as of the close of business on the Record Date. Directors elected by the common stockholders are elected by the affirmative vote of stockholders holding a plurality of shares of common stock, in attendance at the meeting, either in person or by proxy. Directors elected by the Class B stockholders are elected by the affirmative vote of stockholders holding a plurality of shares of Class B stock, in attendance at the meeting, either in person or by proxy.

Can the meeting be adjourned or postponed?

The Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws provide that, if a quorum is not present, a stockholders meeting may be adjourned, from time to time and without notice other than announcement at the meeting, by those stockholders present in person, until a quorum is present. If adjournment is for more than 30 days or if, after the adjournment, a new record date is set, a notice of the adjourned meeting must be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

How can I receive more information?

If you require assistance or have questions about giving your proxy or about this proxy solicitation by Mr. Miller, please call The Altman Group at (866) 745-0269.

PROXY REVOCATION RIGHTS

Any stockholder who has executed and returned a proxy, whether solicited by the Company or by Mr. Miller, may revoke it at any time before the proxy is voted. A proxy may be revoked by sending a written revocation of such proxy to Mr. Miller or to the Secretary of the Company, by submitting another proxy with a later date marked on it, or by appearing in person at the Annual Meeting and voting. If, however, you hold your shares through a bank or broker and wish to vote at the Annual Meeting, you will need to obtain a legal proxy from that firm in order to be able to vote in person. Attendance at the meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy unless you actually vote at the meeting.

Remember, only the latest dated proxy card will be counted. Therefore, Mr. Miller urges you to sign and return the GOLD proxy card accompanying this proxy statement.

Table of Contents

There is no limit on the number of times that a stockholder may revoke a proxy prior to the Annual Meeting. If you send written revocation of your proxy to the Secretary of the Company, Mr. Miller requests that you send either the original or a copy of that revocation to The Altman Group at the address on the last page of this proxy statement. This will allow Mr. Miller to more accurately determine if and when the requisite number of proxies have been received.

PLEASE NOTE, that in order to vote FOR the election of Mr. Miller as a director of Gencor, you will need to complete and return the GOLD proxy card, regardless of whether or not you send a revocation.

PROXY SOLICITATION AND EXPENSES

Proxies may be solicited by mail, telephone, telefax, telegraph, e-mail, newspapers and other publications of general distribution and in person. In connection with this solicitation of proxies, banks, brokers, custodians, nominees, other institutional holders and other fiduciaries will be asked to forward all soliciting materials to the beneficial owners of the shares that those institutions hold of record. Mr. Miller will reimburse those institutions for reasonable expenses that they incur in connection with forwarding these materials.

Mr. Miller has retained The Altman Group, Inc. to solicit proxies in connection with the Annual Meeting. The Altman Group, Inc. may solicit proxies from individuals, banks, brokers, custodians, nominees, other institutional holders and other fiduciaries and will employ approximately 20 people in its efforts. Mr. Miller has agreed to reimburse The Altman Group, Inc. for its reasonable expenses and to pay it fees in connection with the proxy solicitation. It is currently expected that the fees payable to The Altman Group, Inc. in connection with this proxy solicitation will not exceed $35,000. To date, The Altman Group has received $5,000 for its services.

In addition to the costs related to the engagement of The Altman Group, Inc., costs related to this solicitation of proxies include expenditures for printing, postage, legal services and other related items. Mr. Miller is bearing the entire expense of this proxy solicitation. Total expenditures are expected to be approximately $250,000 to $500,000. Total payments of costs to date are approximately $20,000.

Mr. Miller will seek reimbursement of all solicitation expenses from the Company and does not currently intend to seek a vote of the stockholders for approval of such reimbursement.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE PARTICIPANTS IN THIS SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

Mr. Miller may be viewed as a participant in the solicitation of proxies for the Annual Meeting within the meaning of the federal securities laws. Additional information concerning Mr. Miller is set forth in Annex A to this proxy statement. Information concerning Mr. Miller's beneficial ownership of Gencor common stock is set forth in Annex B to this proxy statement. All information contained in Annexes A and B is incorporated into this proxy statement by reference. Information in this proxy statement about Mr. Miller was provided by Mr. Miller.

INFORMATION ABOUT GENCOR

Based upon information provided in Gencor's Form 10-K, the mailing address of Gencor's principal executive office is 5201 North Orange Blossom Trail, Orlando, Florida, 32810, telephone (407) 290-6000.

Table of Contents

Annex C to this proxy statement sets forth information obtained from Gencor's public filings related to the beneficial ownership of Gencor common stock and is incorporated in this proxy statement by reference.

Except as otherwise noted herein, the information in this proxy statement concerning Gencor has been taken from or is based upon documents and records on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission and other publicly available information. Although Mr. Miller does not have any knowledge indicating that any statement contained herein is untrue, he does not take any responsibility for the reliability or completeness of statements taken from public documents and records that were not prepared by or on his behalf, or for any failure by Gencor to disclose events that may affect the significance or accuracy of such information.

OTHER MATTERS TO BE VOTED UPON

The GOLD proxy card provides you the opportunity to vote on the Company's proposals, other than the election of directors by the Company's stockholders. For more information about these proposals, please refer to the proxy statement and form of proxy distributed by the Company.

If no direction is given, proxies held by Mr. Miller will vote FOR, and recommends that common stockholders vote FOR the following proposals:

§ Proposal 1 Election of Lloyd I. Miller, III as director,

§ Proposal 2 Proposal to ratify selection of auditors, and § Proposal 4 Grant of discretionary authority to adjourn meeting to solicit additional votes.

Proxies held by Mr. Miller will vote FOR any proposal by Mr. Miller to adjourn the meeting, unless the signed GOLD proxy contains instructions to the contrary.

If no direction is given, proxies held by Mr. Miller will vote AGAINST, and recommends that common stockholders vote AGAINST the following proposal:

§ Proposal 3 Approval of 2008 Incentive Compensation Plan.

Mr. Miller recommends a vote AGAINST Gencor's proposed stock plan. Mr. Miller believes that stock grants under the proposed plan to Mr. E.J. Elliott and Mr. Marc G. Elliott would lack incentive value. Mr. E.J. Elliott and Mr. Marc G. Elliott each already have a large equity interest in Gencor, and Mr. Miller believes that any future equity grants under the 2008 Incentive Compensation Plan would not provide meaningful incentives to Mr. E.J. Elliott and Mr. Marc G. Elliott to improve the performance of the Company.
