(b) On November 16, 2010, G. Thomas Marsh notified ION Geophysical Corporation (the Company) that he intended to retire from the Board of Directors of the Company, effective on December 2, 2010. Mr. Marsh serves as a Class I director, which is the class of directors whose term will expire at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders in 2012. Mr. Marsh's retirement from the Board of Directors will also include his retirement as a member of the Governance Committee of the Board of Directors, on which he served. Mr. Marsh's retirement was not as a result of any disagreement with the Company regarding the Company's operations, policies or practices.

On November 18, 2010, Bruce S. Appelbaum, PhD notified the Company that he intended to retire from the Board of Directors of the Company, effective on December 2, 2010. Dr. Appelbaum serves as a Class II director, which is the class of directors whose term will expire at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders in 2013. Dr. Appelbaum's retirement from the Board of Directors will also include his retirement as a member of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, on which he served. Dr. Appelbaum's retirement was not as a result of any disagreement with the Company regarding the Company's operations, policies or practices.

On November 22, 2010, Nick G. Vlahakis notified the Company that he intended to retire from the Board of Directors of the Company, effective on December 2, 2010. Mr. Vlahakis serves as a Class III director, which is the class of directors whose term will expire at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders in 2011. Mr. Vlahakis retirement from the Board of Directors will also include his retirement as a member of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, on which he served. Mr. Vlahakis' retirement was not as a result of any disagreement with the Company regarding the Company's operations, policies or practices.

In connection with the above retirements, the Company will decrease the number of directors that will comprise the entire Board from 12 to 9, effective on December 2, 2010.

On March 25, 2010, the Company and BGP Inc., China National Petroleum Corporation, a company organized under the laws of the People's Republic of China (BGP), entered into an Investor Rights Agreement (herein so called) to govern their relationship with regards to BGP's ownership of the Company's common stock it acquired in March 2010. Under the Investor Rights Agreement, for so long as BGP owns at least 10% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, BGP will have the right to nominate one director to serve on the Board of Directors of the Company. Since April 1, 2010, Mr. Guo Yueliang has served as BGP's designee on the Board of Directors, serving in the class of directors having a term of service that expires in 2012. BGP has notified the Company that, effective January 1, 2011, it is designating Mr. Huimin Hao to replace Mr. Guo as BGP's designee on the Board of Directors. As Mr. Guo's replacement on the Board, Mr. Hao will serve the remainder of Mr. Guo's term on the Board, which term is scheduled to expire in 2012.

Mr. Hao, age 47, has been employed by China National Petroleum Corporation (CNPC), China's largest oil company, and its affiliates in various positions of increasing responsibility since 1984. Since 2006, Mr. Hao has been Chief Geophysicist of BGP, a subsidiary of CNPC and the world's largest land seismic contractor. From 2004 to 2006, Mr. Hao was Vice President of BGP, and from 2002 to 2004, he managed the marine department at BGP. Between 1984 and 2002, Mr. Hao served in various management positions at Daganag Geophysical Company, a seismic contractor company owned by CNPC. Mr. Hao holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Geophysical Exploration from China Petroleum University and Masters of Business Administration degrees from the University of Houston and Nankai University in China.
