Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Commencing in December 2005, Crusader has been acquiring, in the ordinary course of business in secondary market transactions, shares of Common Stock using Crusader's working capital. Crusader has purchased approximately 981,879 shares of Common Stock for a total of approximately $26,576,066.

On August 30, 2006, Multi-Strategy SubFund purchased 100,000 shares of Common Stock in secondary market transactions for $2,650,000 using Multi-Strategy Subfund's working capital.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

On October 19, 2006, the Issuer filed a Current Report on Form 8-K disclosing that on October 17, 2006, the Issuer entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement with MHR Fund Management LLC (MHR) pursuant to which MHR or its affiliates (the MHR Purchasers) will purchase from the Issuer shares of two newly created series of convertible perpetual preferred stock of the Issuer (the MHR Transaction). Specifically, according to the Form 8-K, the MHR Purchasers will purchase 136,526 shares of Series A Cumulative 7.50% Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock and 858,486 shares of Series B Cumulative 7.50% Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock for an aggregate purchase price of $300,000,098.

MHR currently owns, in the aggregate, approximately 36% of the outstanding Common Stock and three of MHR's employees or officers are directors of the Issuer's eight-member board of directors, one of whom, who is MHR's President, serves as the non-executive chairman of such board. MHR also owns approximately 38.3% of the Series A 12% Non-Convertible Preferred Stock and 44.6% of the 14% Senior Secured PIK Notes of Loral Skynet Corporation, one of the Issuer's principal wholly owned subsidiaries.

CUSIP No. 543881106

Page 9 of 15 Pages

The Reporting Persons believe that the terms of the MHR Transaction were not negotiated on an arm's length basis, are not fair to or in the best interest of the Issuer's stockholders as a whole, and unfairly benefit MHR at the cost of the Issuer's other stockholders. To the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, the convertible stock that the Issuer has agreed to sell to MHR was never offered to, or discussed with the market at large or other significant stockholders of the Issuer to determine if better market terms might be available or if those stockholders might be willing to purchase such convertible stock. The Reporting Persons believe that in negotiating the MHR Transaction, MHR used its insider status to enrich itself at the expense of the Issuer's other stockholders. In particular, the MHR Transaction: (1) increases MHR's already substantial ownership interest in the Issuer; (2) has terms with respect to coupon, strike price and maturity (or lack thereof) which the Reporting Persons believe bear no resemblance to typical market terms or recent transactions; and (3) provides MHR with an additional seat on the Issuer's board of directors, which allows for further control by MHR and strengthens MHR's ability to capture the upside at the expense of outside public stockholders. The Reporting Persons believe that by accepting the MHR transaction and apparently not insisting on a competitive marketing process, the Issuer's independent directors failed to meet their fiduciary duty of care and failed to protect the stockholders' best interests. The Reporting Persons believe that MHR will not let other stockholders participate in this transaction because it knows how attractive the terms of the deal are from the standpoint of the purchaser.

The MHR Transaction robs non-participating stockholders from the upside of a turnaround that the Reporting Persons believe is obvious and demonstrable at this time due to recent satellite orders among other things. In fact, the Reporting Persons believe that the Issuer is poised for recovery but the MHR Transaction steers the upside to existing controlling stockholders at the expense of other public stockholders.

The Reporting Persons believe that the Issuer could effect a substantially similar sale of convertible preferred stock to stockholders other than MHR on terms which are more advantageous to the Issuer and all of its stockholders than those of the MHR Transaction. Moreover, the Reporting Persons demand that both the Issuer's board of directors and MHR attempt to improve the terms of the MHR Transaction from the Issuer's standpoint. Accordingly, the Reporting Persons are willing to underwrite a $300 million convertible perpetual preferred stock transaction on similar terms that are more favorable to the Issuer, including but not limited to, a lower coupon rate and/or a higher conversion price than proposed in the MHR Transaction. Most importantly, the proposed replacement transaction would be open to all significant public stockholders except MHR and its affiliates. Highland Capital is willing to backstop the $300 million by agreeing to purchase all remaining convertible preferred stock not purchased by the other public stockholders.

The Reporting Persons are aware that there is a general lack of transparency related to the satellite manufacturing business. This lack of transparency makes the valuation of transactions by companies such as the Issuer extremely difficult for non-insiders. These matters further indicate that MHR, which is in a position to have such competitive information, used this information to negotiate a transaction that was to MHR's advantage, at a cost to the Issuer's other stockholders.

Accordingly, if the Reporting Persons are unable to effect a purchase of convertible stock from the Issuer on terms more favorable to the Issuer than those of the MHR Transaction, the Reporting Persons will remain dedicated to encouraging good corporate governance principles as they apply to the Issuer and to protecting the value of their investment in the Issuer and will consider various plans or proposals which relate to or could result in the transactions or changes contemplated by Items 4(a) through 4(j) of Schedule 13D. Such plans or proposals could include, without limitation, (i) acquisitions of additional shares in the open market or otherwise, (ii) potentially seeking possible changes in the present board of directors and management of the Issuer, (iii) making one or more proposals for adoption by stockholders of the Issuer (including proposals to improve the Issuer's corporate governance or to amend the Issuer's organizational documents), (iv) making proposals to the Issuer's board of directors and management, (v) seeking to call a special meeting of stockholders to elect directors or approve stockholder proposals, and soliciting proxies or consents in connection therewith, (vi) proposing an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization, recapitalization or liquidation, involving the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries, or sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries, which transaction may involve the Reporting Persons or third parties unrelated to the Reporting Persons, (vii) alone or in conjunction with others, seeking to acquire the Issuer or substantial assets or outstanding securities of the Issuer, including by merger, tender offer or stock or asset purchase, or (viii) selling all or a portion of the shares now owned or hereafter acquired by the Reporting Persons. In the interim and before formulating any definitive plan or proposal, the Reporting Persons may communicate with other stockholders or third parties regarding the Issuer, its business, prospects and alternatives to maximize stockholder value and to otherwise protect Highland Capital's interest in the Issuer.

On October 23, 2006 Highland Capital sent a letter to the Special Committee of the Issuer's board of directors, which letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

Each of the Reporting Persons and Crusader Fund GP, Crusader Fund GP LLC, Master Fund, Multi-Strategy GP and Multi-Strategy GP LLC declares that the filing of this statement shall not be construed as an admission that such person is, for the purposes of Sections 13(d) or 13(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the beneficial owner of any securities covered by this statement.

(a) As of October 23, 2006, each of the Reporting Persons may be deemed to beneficially own an aggregate of 1,081,897 shares of Common Stock, representing approximately 5.4% of the Common Stock outstanding as of October 23, 2006 (based on the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding as contained in Issuer's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 7, 2006).

Each of Crusader Fund GP, Crusader Fund GP LLC, Multi-Strategy GP and Multi-Strategy GP LLC and each director and executive officer of Strand and Multi-Strategy SubFund (other than Mr. Dondero) beneficially owns zero shares of Common Stock. Notwithstanding its jointly filed statement on Schedule 13G dated August 30, 2006 and filed on September 7, 2006 (which statement this Schedule 13D corrects), Master Fund beneficially owns zero shares of Common Stock. While Master Fund is the managing member of Multi-Strategy SubFund, pursuant to a management agreement between Highland Capital and Multi-Strategy SubFund, Highland Capital has all voting and dispositive powers with respect to securities held by Multi-Strategy SubFund.
