Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Consummation of the Exchange Offer

On June 20, 2008, D.R. Horton, Inc. (the "Company"), entered into the Twenty-Ninth Supplemental Indenture, dated as of June 20, 2008 (the "New Notes Indenture Supplement"), among the Company, the guarantors named therein and American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, as trustee (the "Trustee"), which supplements the Indenture, dated as of June 9, 1997, by and among the Company, the guarantors party thereto and the Trustee (as so supplemented, the "Indenture"). The New Notes Indenture Supplement provides for the issuance of the Company's 9.75% Senior Notes due 2010 (the "New Notes") in exchange for the Company's outstanding 9.75% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2010 (the "Existing Notes") tendered pursuant to the Company's offer to exchange (the "Offer") any and all of the Existing Notes for an equal principal amount of the New Notes.

The Offer expired at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on June 19, 2008, and was consummated on June 20, 2008. Approximately $96,777,000 aggregate principal amount, representing approximately 85.27% of the outstanding principal amount of the Existing Notes, was tendered for exchange in the Offer. The Company accepted all validly tendered Existing Notes and, in exchange, has issued an equal principal amount of New Notes pursuant to the New Notes Indenture Supplement. For each $1,000 principal amount of outstanding Existing Notes validly tendered before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on June 4, 2008, a holder also received a consent payment of $10, in connection with the consent solicitation described below. The Company did not receive any proceeds from the issuance of the New Notes.

The New Notes bear interest at a rate of 9.75% per annum and will mature on September 15, 2010. The Company will pay interest on the New Notes on March 15 and September 15 of each year. The interest payment on September 15, 2008 will include interest from March 15, 2008, the last date on which interest on the exchanged Existing Notes was paid. The New Notes are guaranteed by each of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries that guarantee the Existing Notes.

The New Notes are the Company's general obligations and are not secured by any collateral, and rank equally in right of payment with all other unsecured unsubordinated indebtedness of the Company. The New Notes rank senior in right of payment to the Existing Notes that remain outstanding. The guarantees also are not secured by any collateral and rank equally in right of payment with all other unsecured unsubordinated debt of the guarantors. The New Notes are not subject to redemption prior to maturity, but holders of the New Notes have the right to require the Company to purchase some or all of their New Notes upon a change of control (as defined). The New Notes Indenture Supplement contains covenants that restrict the ability of the Company and its restricted subsidiaries to use assets as security in other transactions, create restrictions on the ability of restricted subsidiaries to make certain payments, and engage in mergers, consolidations or sales of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and contains customary events of default.

The Indenture has been qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, and the terms of the New Notes include those set forth in the Indenture and those made part of the Indenture by reference to the Trust Indenture Act.

The New Notes were issued solely to existing securityholders of the Company pursuant to the exemption from registration under Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The Company did not pay or give, directly or indirectly, any commission or other remuneration, including underwriting discounts, to any broker, dealer, salesman or other person for soliciting tenders of the Existing Notes in connection with the Offer, and the Company did not retain any dealer, manager or other agent to solicit tenders with respect to the Offer.

The foregoing description of the terms of the New Notes and the Indenture is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Indenture, including the New Notes Indenture Supplement, which are included as Exhibits 4.1 and 4.2, and are incorporated herein by reference.

Amendments to the Existing Notes Indenture

In conjunction with the Offer, the Company also solicited (the Consent Solicitation), consents of holders of the Existing Notes to amend certain provisions of the indenture governing the Existing Notes. The indenture for the Existing Notes is the Indenture dated as of September 11, 2000 (as supplemented, the Existing Notes Indenture), among the Company, the guarantors party thereto and the Trustee. As previously reported in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on June 5, 2008, following the receipt of requisite consents for the amendment of the Existing Notes Indenture, on June 4, 2008, the Company, the guarantors and the Trustee entered into a Seventh Supplemental Indenture with respect to the Existing Notes.

The amendments to the Existing Notes Indenture provided in the Seventh Supplemental Indenture became operative upon the consummation of the Offer on June 20, 2008. Following the consummation of the Offer, approximately $16,723,000 aggregate principal amount of Existing Notes remains outstanding.
