ITEM 8. INTEREST IN THE SECURITIES OF THE SUBJECT COMPANY.

Item 8 is hereby amended and supplemented by include the following information:

The initial offering period expired at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on Friday, August 17, 2001. Following the expiration of the initial offering period, we accepted for payment all shares validly tendered during the initial offering period. We were informed of preliminary results by the depositary that the shares tendered totaled 6,621,914, representing approximately 93% of the outstanding shares. These shares, together with 309,163 shares subject to notices of guaranteed delivery, represent approximately 97% of the outstanding shares. DTM delisted its shares from the Nasdaq SmallCap Market before the open of business on August 20, 2001. In connection with the delisting, DTM filed a Certification and Notice of Termination of Registration under Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 on Form 15 with the SEC on August 20, 2001.

On August 20, 2001, we commenced a subsequent offering period which will expire at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on Thursday, August 23, 2001.

Edgar Filing: DTM CORP /TX/ - Form SC TO-T/A

During the subsequent offering period, shares of DTM'S common stock will be accepted and paid for promptly as they are tendered. The same $5.80 per share consideration during the initial offering period will be paid during the subsequent offering period. Shares of DTM's common stock tendered during the subsequent offering period may not be withdrawn.

The expiration of the subsequent offering period will be followed by a merger between Tiger Deals, our wholly owned subsidiary, and DTM, with DTM as the surviving company. Pursuant to the merger, DTM stockholders who do not tender their shares in the offer and who do not seek appraisal of their shares pursuant to the provisions of applicable law will have their shares converted into a right to receive the same $5.80 per share purchase price provided for in the offer. As a result of the merger, DTM will become our wholly owned subsidiary. We intend to complete the merger as soon as practicable after the expiration of the subsequent offering period.

The full text of the press release we issued on August 20, 2001 announcing the expiration of the initial offering period, the commencement of the subsequent offering period and the follow-on merger between Tiger Deals and DTM is filed as Exhibit (a)(1)(xviv) and we incorporate it by reference.

ITEM 11. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

Item 11 of Schedule TO is hereby amended and supplemented by including the following:

On August 16, 2001, we reached a settlement with the United States Department of Justice enabling us to complete the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of April 2, 2001, by and among our company, DTM and Tiger Deals. Under the terms of the settlement agreement, which was filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia on August 16, 2001, we must enter into a patent licensing agreement for either stereolithography or selective laser sintering with a third party. We have 120 days from August 16, 2001 to complete the license agreement, unless the Department of Justice agrees to grant us a 60-day extensions. If we are unable to complete the license agreement within the time permitted under the settlement agreement, the Department of Justice may appoint a trustee to effect the required license.

Our settlement with the Department of Justice was filed with the court as a proposed Final Judgment. As required by the Tunney Act, the proposed Final Judgment will be published in the Federal Register. Following a 60-day comment period, the court may enter the Final Judgment upon a finding that it serves the public interest. We have agreed to abide by the terms of the proposed Final Judgment pending its entry. We expect the proposed Final Judgment to be entered by the court following completion of the Tunney Act procedures. However, if, following all available appeals, the court does not enter the Final Judgment, the Department of Justice would be able to recommence its challenge to our purchase of DTM, even if we have consummated the purchase.

The full text of the press release we issued on August 16, 2001 announcing the settlement with the Department of Justice is filed as Exhibit (a)(1)(xviii) and we incorporate it by reference.
