Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Friedman's Inc. ("Friedman's" or the "Company") and Pamela J. Romano entered into an Employment Agreement, dated as of April 20, 2005 (the "Employment Agreement"), setting forth the terms of Ms. Romano's employment as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, effective as of April 20, 2005.

The Employment Agreement provides that Ms. Romano will receive an annual base salary of $500,000, and a signing bonus of $200,000. During her term of employment, Ms. Romano will be entitled to participate in the Company's annual incentive bonus plan, having a target amount of 75% of Ms. Romano's annual base salary and which may be up to 100% of her annual base salary, provided that, in addition to the signing bonus, Ms. Romano will be entitled to a minimum annual incentive bonus payment of $150,000 for calendar year 2005.

Ms. Romano will also be entitled to participate in the Company's Key Employee Compensation Program ("KECP"). Under the KECP, Ms. Romano will be entitled to receive a grant of stock options equal to 1.75% of the total amount of Friedman's common stock (the "Emergence Grant") on the effective date of a plan of reorganization under chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Emergence Date") as approved by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Georgia, in Savannah. The Emergence Grant will be vested at grant with respect to 50% of the options. The remaining options will vest with respect to 25% of the total grant on each of the first and second anniversaries of the Emergence Date. Upon the Company's emergence from chapter 11, Ms. Romano will also be entitled to received a cash bonus of $700,000, of which 50% will be paid on the Emergence Date, 25% will be paid on the six-month anniversary of the Emergence Date, and 25% will be paid on the one-year anniversary of the Emergence Date. Ms. Romano will also be eligible to participate in the retirement, medical, dental and other benefit plans which the Company makes available to its senior executive officers.

The Employment Agreement is for an initial term of two years commencing on April 20, 2005, subject to earlier termination by Friedman's with or without cause. The Employment Agreement may also be terminated by Ms. Romano voluntarily or for good reason. If Ms. Romano's employment is terminated (a) by the Company without cause, (b) by Ms. Romano for good reason upon the non-performance by the Company of the Employment Agreement in accordance with it its terms, or (c) upon non-renewal of the Employment Agreement by the Company, Ms. Romano will be entitled to receive as severance, an amount equal to two times the sum of (x) her then current annual salary and (y) the greater of (i) Ms. Romano's most recent annual incentive bonuses and (ii) the arithmetic mean of Ms. Romano's annual incentive bonuses for the two most recent years, provided, however, that if the Company liquidates its business operations in its pending chapter 11 cases at any time prior to December 31, 2006, Ms. Romano shall only be entitled to receive a severance payment equal to two times her annual base salary. If Ms. Romano voluntarily terminates her employment or is terminated by the Company for cause, she will not be entitled to any severance, termination pay or other compensation or benefits.

Ms. Romano's employment may be terminated by the Company within twelve months of certain events involving a change of control of the Company. In the event of such termination following a change of control, Ms. Romano will be entitled to a lump sum payment in the amount of 299% of the sum of her base salary (as in effect for the year prior to the date of termination) plus annual incentive bonus (as in effect on the date of termination). Ms. Romano is also entitled to receive a gross-up payment from the Company in respect of any excise tax imposed on any change in control payment to the extent that such payment constitutes an "excess parachute payment" within the meaning of
